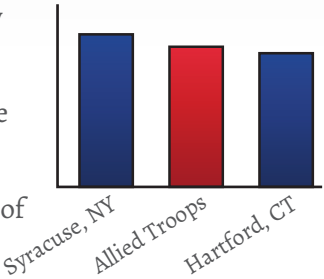
D-Day
By the Numbers

The Troops

Approximately 130,000 Allied troops were deployed to the beaches of Normandy. That's the size of a small city.



About 44% of the troops were from the United States.

You could fill Yankee Stadium with the 57,500 American troops that landed on D-Day, and still have over 6,000 soldiers waiting outside.

Their Sacrifice

About 1 in 50 Allied soldiers who landed on D-Day were killed in action.

Part of the Robert R. McCormick Foundations

FIRST DIVISION MUSEUM

at CANTIGNY PARK

www.firstdivisionmuseum.org/d-day_sources