

About Men's Wearhouse:

Men's Wearhouse was founded in 1973 by George Zimmer. Since then, Men's Wearhouse has become one of the largest specialty retailers of men's apparel and tux rentals in the country, with more than 900 stores carrying a full selection of designer and private-label suits, sport coats, formalwear, casualwear, and accessories, including apparel by Kenneth Cole, Joseph Abboud, Calvin Klein, Ralph Lauren, and Tommy Hilfiger. Men's Wearhouse is proud to be the go-to store for menswear and carries an extensive Big & Tall selection to fit all men.

Perfect Fit Guarantee:

Men's Wearhouse ensures each customer is completely satisfied with the fit, quality, and fabric of any item and may return purchases within 90 days of the original sale for full satisfaction. The company believes in its clothing and offers lifetime pressing and free re-alterations on all tailoring.

Corporate
Social Responsibility:

George Zimmer and Men's Wearhouse believe in giving back to the communities the company serves on both the local and national level.

Through the Merchandise Donation Program, as well as its National Suit Drive, Men's Wearhouse is committed to providing professional clothing to non-profit organizations that have work force and job-readiness programs. Over the years, the company has collected and donated hundreds of thousands of suits and professional attire to help men "suit up" for success.
