GOOD NEWS Orlando

a Gospel Crusade with International Evangelist Reinhard Bonnke

SUGGESTED QUESTIONS

Good News: A Gospel Crusade with International Evangelist Reinhard Bonnke

- After spending 35 years in Africa as a missionary evangelist spreading the Gospel, why focus your efforts on the United States now?
- Many Americans have been essential to the success of CfaN's work abroad through stewardship, yet don't know the extent of the impact the ministry has had on the continent of Africa; can you tell us about the success of CfaN in Africa?
- How will the message you share at these "Good News" crusades be different from the message you offer to those in Africa?
- The United States is currently in a time of great moral and religious decline. More people than ever claim to have no religious affiliation; what can be done to change this fact?
- For those interested in attending a "Good News" crusade, what kind of experience can they expect?
- What is the primary message you will share with "Good News" crusade attendees?
- Your first event is scheduled in Orlando, Fla. for September 27th and 28th, 2013; why did you choose Orlando for the inaugural crusade?
- You yourself recently became a U.S. citizen. As an American, why do you think it is important our nation clings to faith in God?
- How many crusades will CfaN hold in 2013 and will the crusade continue into 2014?
- How does CfaN plan to assist in sustaining any conversions or commitments to Christ that take place at the "Good News" crusade?