Ricoh Corporate Social Responsibility Group:
www.ricoh.com/csr/index.html

- The Ricoh Group adheres to the "The Spirit of Three Loves" philosophy advocated by our founder, Kiyoshi Ichimura. This philosophy encourages people to "love your neighbor (as a member of the global community), love your country and Mother Nature, and love your work (with a sense of mission)." This idea is the basis of the Ricoh Group's CSR initiatives.

- Ricoh's management philosophy was established in 1986 based on these Guiding Principles so as to develop a corporate and business structure that can respond to changes in today's world, such as the acceleration of the advanced information society and the diversification of values.

- In addition, Ricoh established the Ricoh Group CSR Charter and the Ricoh Group Code of Conduct in 2003 so as to lay down common values and behavioral principles to share globally among all employees.

- The Group also continues to develop and improve CSR activities proactively with the understanding that CSR enhances corporate value.
Environmental Responsibility:
www.ricoh.com/environment/

- Ricoh Group has been steadfastly committed to the environment for over 30 years. In 1976, Ricoh established an Environmental Protection Group responsible for keeping Ricoh’s environmental goals and strategies as a key consideration when planning, developing, designing and promoting new products and services. In 2009, Ricoh set medium and long-term targets for reducing the total CO2 emission (including the converted value of 5 gasses) by 87.5% by FY2050, and 30% by FY2020, compared to FY2000.

- Ricoh has been named as one of the Global 100 Most Sustainable Corporations in the World for the past six consecutive years at the World Economic Forum in Davos. Ricoh has also won the World Environment Center (WEC) Gold Medal for International Corporate Achievement in Sustainable Development in 2003.

- Ricoh became only the second Japanese company to sign the UN Global Compact (GC) in April 2002. In June 2007, Ricoh also became a signatory to Caring for Climate; The Business Leadership Platform by GC.

- The Ricoh Group expressed support for the communiqué announced at the 14th conference of the parties to the United Nations framework convention on Climate Change held in December 2008 in Poznań, Poland. The Ricoh group is the only Japanese company that has so far announced its commitment to the communiqué.

- In November 2008, Ricoh was awarded the highest rating, AAA, in the environmental rating by Tohmatsu Evaluation and Certification Organisation Co Ltd., for the fourth consecutive year.

- In 2009 OEKOM, the highly respected German environmental rating agency, once again honored Ricoh with one of three top ranking places in the combined area of CSR and environment.

- On April 14, 2009, Ethisphere Institute, a US-based leading think tank specializing in business ethics, named Ricoh as “One of the World’s Most Ethical Companies.”

- In 2008, Ricoh Europe PLC won two prestigious Ruban D’Honneur prizes for Environmental Awareness and Corporate Sustainability.
