CINCINNATI, OHIO—December 6, 2012— As it is for many consumers, the holiday season is Roto-Rooter's busiest. America's largest plumbing and drain cleaning company always provides seasonal tips for home plumbing maintenance so homeowners can prevent messy mishaps and spend more time enjoying the holidays. This year, amidst clogged drains, water heater servicing and frozen pipe repair, Roto-Rooter is also helping busy homeowners check something else off of their list. Roto-Rooter's 2012 bathroom gadgets and accessories gift guide has a variety of fun, functional gifts for everyone in a wide price range.

"People are spending more time than ever before in the bathroom. Trends in home design and mobility of electronics have made the bathrooms of average homes spa-like retreats where a stressed homeowner can unwind with a tablet, music and more," said Roto-Rooter director of public relations Paul Abrams.

On average, a person spends 30 minutes per day in the bathroom, while at least one in four spends an hour or more. Everyone has someone on their holiday shopping list that they aren't sure what to buy and they all have one thing in common; they spend time in the bathroom daily.

That is why Roto-Rooter's Top Ten Bathroom Gadget Gifts for 2012 has an ideal gift for everyone. Available for as little as $10.00 and as high as $500.00, ordered by price from lowest to highest the gifts are:

- 1) Waterproof notepads
- 2) Chilling Tales from the Porcelain Seat bathroom reader
- 3) Hands-free soap and toothpaste dispensers
