

InFocus 60-Second Script: Canstruction feeds the NYC community with sculptures, competition, and canned goods

| VIDEO | AUDIO |
|--|---|
| IN FOCUS GRAPHIC | IN FOCUS ON HUNGER RELIEF. |
| Carrying cans to construction site Rack focus cans being picked up Building igloo construction Building “Star Wars” construction | SINCE 1992, CANSTRUCTION HAS RAISED OVER FIFTEEN MILLION CANS OF FOOD AND SPREAD TO CITIES ALL ACROSS THE GLOBE, HELPING COMMUNITIES WORLDWIDE FIGHT HUNGER. |
| David Swangel , Canstruction Atlanta | “And so Canstruction comes alongside these communities that are battling the hunger problem locally—and it’s not something that, that benefits, um, us on a national level, it benefits the communities that we, that we partner with.” |
| Stacking cans Building igloo construction Time lapse “Cloudy with a Chance of Tomato” construction Building minion construction Wide shot Loch Ness monster construction | BOTH A CHARITY AND A DESIGN COMPETITION, CANSTRUCTION HAS 26 TEAMS OF VOLUNTEER ARCHITECTS, ENGINEERS, AND DESIGNERS COME TOGETHER TO BUILD SCULPTURES OUT OF CANNED GOODS. |
| Jennifer M. Greene , Founding Committee Member Wide shot man ripping shirt construction Over-the-shoulder view of spectator looking at finished | “They’re exhibited here at Brookfield Place until November 13th. After the exhibit we’re going to take them all—decanstruct them—donate them to City Harvest who will then ... send them out to over four hundred New York City food programs.” |

| | |
|--|--|
| constructions Pan up NYC skyline construction | |
| Pan up "Lady & the Tramp" construction Man observing "Star Wars" construction | WHILE THE EXHIBIT IS FREE, VISITORS ARE ASKED TO BRING A CANNED GOOD TO DONATE. |
| Slate | FOR MORE INFORMATION, VISIT CANSTRUCTION DOT ORG. |