

1991 Porsche 911

Restored, Reimagined and Reborn at Singer Vehicle Design in Los Angeles, California.

This machine demonstrates the evolution of the Singer philosophy, blending tradition with modernity.

The iconic air-cooled flat-six engine is pure Porsche DNA but has evolved to 3.8L and 360HP.

The state-of-the-art, weigh-saving carbon body is accented with the '60s Porsche color "Bahama Yellow"

A real race car for the road.

Downton Blue Exterior

Tobacco Brown Leatherweave Interior

3.8L Cosworth Developed, 360HP Engine

6-speed Transmission with LSD

Ohlins Suspension

Centre Race Fuel Cell with External Filler, External Oil Filler

All Bodywork rendered in Carbon Fibre

All Brightwork in Nickel

In celebration of the most important sports car in the world.

Long live the 911.
