OPENING DATE:

August 6, 1966

TOWERS:

In February 2013, Caesars Palace Las Vegas and Nobu Hospitality opened the world's first Nobu Hotel, an innovative concept that integrates an exclusive hotel tower with the first Nobu restaurant and lounge on the Las Vegas Strip. A multi-million dollar renovation to create the 181-room Nobu Hotel, which features 18 suites with a stylish interior design that showcases natural materials, fused with Nobu's signature Japanese elegance. Nobu Hotel guests enjoy private check-in and the unique benefit of room service from Nobu's acclaimed culinary team. For more information, visit www.nobucaesarspalace.com or call 800-727-4923 for reservations

Caesars Palace recently opened Octavius Tower, the resort's sixth hotel tower, January 2, 2012. The 23-story hotel tower offers 642 rooms including 62 suites and six luxury villas. Octavius Tower offers a luxurious boutique hotel experience within Caesars Palace featuring a private entrance, separate hotel lobby and attentive service staff. The stylish hotel rooms start at 550 square-feet and feature an innovative technology package which includes a web application that allows guests direct accessibility to communicate with room service, housekeeping, reservations and front desk services. An in-room MediaHub allows convenient plug-and-play capabilities with direct streaming straight from a mobile device to the 42-inch flat screen television.

In 2010, three luxury villas were completed in the newly constructed Octavius Tower revealing spacious floor plans spanning an average of 8,800 square feet. Each villa features imported marble floors; a private elevator; hand-distressed wood parquet and inlaid wood floors; hand-painted wall murals and ceiling designs; wood and stone archways and casings; a billiard room; a plush home entertainment theatre; whirlpool bathtubs in the master and guest baths; steam mist showers in all bathrooms; fully integrated audio visual systems with televisions in nearly every room and custom contemporary artwork. An outside private terrace includes a spa tub, fire pit, seating and dining area with a gas lantern and wall sconces. Villa guests may also enjoy the luxury of private butler and concierge services.

The 24-story Forum Tower includes 452 guest rooms, 10 two-story suites, inspiration for the movie "Rain Man," and "The Hangover," 60 two-bay suites, 18 executive suites and two penthouses (9,500 and 12,500 square feet). Guest accommodations feature blissful bedding, dressed in premium linens and stylish matlassés, as well as large, flat panel televisions, iPod® docking stations, electronic doorbells and "do not disturb" messaging. Distinctive in the Forum Tower are spacious, marble showers equipped with both rain shower and regular showerhead fixtures and bench seating. The refurbishment of the Forum Tower was completed in October 2008 at a cost of $83 million, following the late 2005 opening of the 900-room Augustus Tower and the 2006 refurbishment of the 1,100-room Palace Tower.
