

Brain Games

BROOKDALE
— SENIOR LIVING SOLUTIONS —

Don't be an Idiom

Instructions: Complete the following sentences with the correct idiom. Each idiom will begin with the word "on."

If your TV stops working, it's....

If you are having success after success, you are...

If the assistant you've hired is well informed and capable, he or she is...

If you've stopped drinking alcohol, you are...

If you're very worried about the results of a blood test you've taken, you're .... until you hear from the doctor.

If your company is laying off workers and you are on the list, then your head is...

If you want your guests to arrive on time, you tell them to come at seven o'clock...

If a waiter brings you an appetizer that you don't have to pay for, you are getting it...

If you are running away from the police or have just escaped from jail, you are...

If you know the word for something but can't quite come up with it, the word is...

If you meet someone with whom you share the same ideas and opinions, the two of you are...

Group Therapy

Instructions: This game proves that there is more than one correct answer to a question. Try to come up with the minimum number of answers we're asking for.

Name five packaged breakfast cereals.

Name six stringed instruments.

Name five things, other than books, that are read.

Name five brands of bar soap.

Name four countries that have four-letter names.

Name five sports that use a round ball.

For the answers to our brain games, go to <http://newsroom.brookdale.com/answers>

For more fun and challenging puzzles and games, look for these books by Nancy Linde, available wherever books are sold. For more information, visit us at workman.com/authors/nancy\_linde/ or never2old4games.com

Used with permission of Nancy Linde and Workman Publishing Company.