

Audio Visual for the Twelve Years Exhibition

Vintage Radio excerpts are from the following broadcasts:

* WAMU at 50

WAMU 88.5 American University Radio

* Felix Grant interview with Brazilian musician João Gilberto on WMAL in 1963

Courtesy of the Felix E. Grant Jazz Archives, University of the District of Columbia

* Air check of D.J. Tony Marquis from WOOK 100.3 FM recorded in September 1977

William Tucker, Jr., Founder/General manager, WOOK 1640AM/103.1 FM

Vintage Video Includes:

Video 1 -

President John F. Kennedy Inaugural Address, January 1961

Joint Congressional Committee on Inaugural Ceremonies

Video 2 -

No Time for Ugliness, 1964

The American Institute of Architects examines the need to renew the look of decaying & overcrowded American cities and urban areas.

The American Institute of Architects

Video 3 -

The People and the Police, 1971

This film documents the role of community engagement in the development and planning of a model program designed to improve police-community relations.

US Office of Economic Opportunity, National Archives and Records Administration

Contemporary Interviews and Memories Include:

Video 4

Community Voices Presentation Includes

Barbara Frank, Artist and Organizer of 1972 Conference for Women in the Visual Arts

Arturo Griffiths, Latino Community Organizer

Deacon Maccubbin, Founder/Owner, Lambda Rising Bookstore and Organizer Gay Pride Day

Autobiographical Stories produced by American University Center for Community Voice:

Featuring Dera Tompkins, Uzekee Nelson, Rosliand Styles, Rosco "Roach" Brown, Tony Gittens and Cecilia Johnson

Stories of Washingtonians:

Interviews with Robert Stockwell, architect; Joan Snowden, education activist; Andy Litsky, citizen; Arrington Dixon, President, Anacostia Coordinating Council; Donald Murray, veteran and community organizer ; Peter Sefton, preservationist