The Contra Costa Transportation Authority (CCTA) invests in infrastructure and programs that keep people moving and the economy humming. Combining long-range planning, deep public engagement, and incorporating cutting-edge technology, we’re helping position Contra Costa for a vibrant future.

COUNTY-WIDE INVESTMENTS

Contra Costa is a diverse county that includes rural farm communities, suburban neighborhoods, and urban cores. CCTA is improving how people get around Contra Costa County. We strive to meet our community’s varied needs through thoughtful and inclusive planning, investments in transit, preserving open space, and creating roads that are accessible to all modes of transportation.

CONNECT WITH CCTA

/ContraCostaTransportationAuthority  @CCTA  ccta.net/youtube 2999 Oak Road, Suite 100 Walnut Creek, CA 925.256.4700 / ccta.net
CCTA was honored with the 2015 Digital Government Achievement award for government-to-citizen engagement. CCTA also won the Construction Management Association of America’s 2015 National Project Achievement award for the Sand Creek Interchange project.

One of CCTA’s most critical responsibilities is serving as a steady steward of taxpayer dollars. As the agency tasked with managing the delivery of transportation programs and projects in the county, CCTA is required to maintain a high level of accountability to Contra Costa voters.

Our prudent management of public dollars ensures that we’re consistently delivering transportation improvements that meaningfully enhance the quality of life for local residents. CCTA operates with 1% cap on the agency’s administrative expenses, meaning minimum overhead and maximum project delivery. For our sound financial stewardship, CCTA has been awarded the Government Finance Officers Association Certificate of Achievement for Excellence in Financial Reporting award for four years running.

CCTA is rated AAA from Fitch Ratings—the highest bond rating attainable!

About Contra Costa County

Population: 1 Million +

Innovation: On the cutting edge of transportation technology

Location: San Francisco Bay Area

Citizen Engagement

By developing unique online engagement tools where residents can provide their feedback via desktop or mobile devices, CCTA has increased the public’s engagement in our work. Thousands of residents have been able to express their priorities for improvements they would like to see throughout the county, guiding the agency’s decisions as we plan for the future.

Redefining Mobility

At GoMentum Station in Concord, California, CCTA and its partners are leading and facilitating a collaborative consortium aimed at accelerating the next generation of transportation technologies and revolutionizing mobility as we know it. Learn more: gomentumstation.net.