RESTAURANT	International phenomenon and award-winning Chef Gordon Ramsay's second restaurant in Las Vegas serves lunch, dinner and late-night dining. Gordon Ramsay Pub & Grill offers guests the UK Chef's interpretation of an English pub experience in Las Vegas. With close proximity to the Colosseum and the entrance of the Forum Shops, the restaurant is a convenient location for diners to enjoy a meal or the game, along with the vibrancy of the casino.
CUISINE	Gordon Ramsay Pub & Grill's lunch and dinner menus are comprised of items consistent with traditional British pub food—bangers and mash, fish and chips and chicken curry. Paying homage to a true pub, the new restaurant features a wide selection of craft and microbrews from around the world, offering beer enthusiasts 24 beers on tap in addition to another 63 bottled beers.
DESIGN	EDG Interior Architecture + Design created a space that is welcoming, high-energy and comfortable utilizing distressed woods. The restaurant is laid out like a collection of rooms, each with its own design, seating format and energy. A wall made from kegs, 175 kegs to be exact, separates rooms while artwork pays tribute to the Tower of London, St. Paul's and Big Ben. The centerpiece is a striking bar showcasing beer taps in front of a backdrop inspired by traditional British red telephone booths. A vintage-style lounge comprises the pub section of the restaurant and a private dining room is available in the grill section. Located at the intersection of the Forum Shops, Colosseum and self-parking garage, Gordon Ramsay Pub & Grill takes advantage of its central setting with a patio area extending onto the casino floor where guests can be in the middle of the action. Tabletops are comprised of rustic, pottery-inspired plateware layered with unprocessed woods and rugged serving vessels.

UNIFORMS

The staff uniforms are inspired by the English punk scene and feature a number of multi-media pieces designed by Glee and Mad Men assistant costume designer Allison Leach, a continuing trend with Gordon Ramsay's Las Vegas restaurants.
