

The Generous Pour

SUMMER WINE EVENT

Presenting The 2017 Generous Pour collection:

seven California and Oregon wines, all rated 90 points or higher by some of the most respected wine reviewers in the world.

WHITE

WILLAKENZIE ESTATE, WILLAMETTE VALLEY, 2016

PINOT GRIS
90 POINTS

Named for Oregon's Willamette and McKenzie rivers to honor the mineral-rich sediment in which their vines are grown, it is understandable that WillaKenzie's motto is "dirt matters."

TASTING NOTES: Pineapple, citrus, green melon and tropical fruits with a bright but creamy texture

MATANZAS CREEK WINERY, SONOMA, 2016

SAUVIGNON BLANC
92 POINTS

A balanced and savory "old world style" of Sauvignon Blanc from the Bennett Valley in Sonoma that delivers fresh brightness of fruit and lively acidity on the finish.

TASTING NOTES: Grapefruit, white nectarine, Honeycrisp™ apples and dry lemon thyme

CAMBRIA, CLONE 4, SANTA MARIA VALLEY, 2015

CHARDONNAY
91 POINTS

Long, sunny days and a cooler climate moderated by the Pacific Ocean of the Santa Maria Valley define this ripe but refreshing Chardonnay.

TASTING NOTES: Fresh citrus, apple and white peach with a hint of sweet oak

RED

SIDURI, WILLAMETTE VALLEY, 2015

PINOT NOIR
90 POINTS

Willamette Valley is arguably one of the finest regions in the country for Pinot Noir, and Siduri's 2015 vintage is perhaps the finest produced in Oregon in over 20 years.

TASTING NOTES: Fresh red and blue fruit with allspice, a hint of white pepper and silky smooth texture

ARROWOOD "SONOMA ESTATES," SONOMA COUNTY, 2014

CABERNET SAUVIGNON
90 POINTS

A bright, juicy blend of Bordeaux varietals from the valleys of Sonoma, Knights and Alexander, the historic Arrowood winery has set the bar for Sonoma County Cabernet.

TASTING NOTES: Black cherry and black currant preserves with undertones of chai tea and mocha

EDMEADES, MENDOCINO, 2013

ZINFANDEL
91 POINTS

From a pioneering winery with a sole focus on Zinfandel in the Mendocino Valley with vines planted over 60 years ago, this is the wine that helped put Mendocino, California on the map.

TASTING NOTES: Ripe raspberries, red cherries, black currants and nectarines with notes of cinnamon and graham cracker

MT. BRAVE, MT. VEEDER, NAPA VALLEY, 2012

CABERNET SAUVIGNON
92 POINTS

At 1,800 feet atop Mt. Veeder in Napa Valley—where the sun is intense, the climate is cool, and the berries are small and flavorful—comes a big Cab consistently rated 90 and above from critics such as the famed Robert Parker.

TASTING NOTES: Raspberry, blueberry and touch of vanilla with approachable tannins
