LAS VEGAS (April 1, 2016) – The Strip's hottest social hub, Beerhaus will open its doors Monday, April 4 at The Park, the new outdoor dining and entertainment district on the Las Vegas Strip. The restaurant is a remix of the American beer hall and will be the ideal hangout for starting the party before attending a special event at T-Mobile Arena, keeping the party alive afterwards or livening up a weekday. The casual, inviting concept will encourage guests to come as they are to enjoy elusive beers, local craft brews, hearty food and fun, interactive games and specials.

Grub

Slow-roasted rotisserie meats, sausage sandwiches, savory sides and sweet treats to entice everyone's inner child will keep guests fueled while playing bar games or socializing on the outdoor patio. All food will be prepared using hormone and antibiotic-free meats and organic produce. Highlights include:

- Beerhaus Brat, an IPA-infused cheddar brat made with Stone Brewing's popular Arrogant Bastard Ale, topped with crispy onions and smoked bacon jam made in-house using caramelized onions and toasted mustard seeds and served on a poppy seed bun.
- Slow Roast Pulled Beef Sandwich, roast beef brisket slathered in a proprietary beef rub made of 15 different spices then cooked to perfection on the rotisserie and piled high on a soft bun and topped with atomic horseradish slaw and white cheddar cheese.
- Warm Pretzel and Beer Cheese Dip, freshly baked pretzels perfect for dipping in the creamy beer and cheese dip made using a rotating selection of local and regional craft brews.
- Red Velvet Whoopie Pie, a red velvet cake sandwich stuffed with cream cheese filling creating a soft and delicious sweet treat.

Suds

Guests may experience a variety of local beers from Las Vegas homegrown breweries including Joseph James, Big Dog's, Crafthaus and Hop Nuts as well as highly awarded regional and international rarities such as "The Poet" from New Holland Brewing. Beerhaus will always be pouring something interesting to delight first time and return guests alike.

For those looking to imbibe something other than beer, the menu will offer a selection of made-to-order classic cocktails including Old Fashioned and Tennessee Smash as well as Moscow Mules and Palomas on draft. Beer lovers can feel comfortable bringing along their wine-loving friends as a number of wines-by-the-glass will keep the peace.

Social Happenings

- Tap Takeovers - Mondays

Each Monday, Beerhaus will turn over five taps to a craft brewery allowing them to showcase unique and hard-to-find draft offerings. Featured beer available until the keg runs out.

- Geeks Who Drink - Tuesdays

Guests with a competitive spirit and a wealth of useless knowledge get the chance to show their stuff at Tuesday night Trivia nights. The lively weekly competition is the ideal place to challenge friends or team up against others for a spirited good time.

- Haus Party – Daily, 4-6 p.m.

Beerhaus' take on Happy Hour will offer $4 featured brews and deals on select sandwiches, sausages and snacks.

- Beer Freak Fridays

Beer connoisseurs and anyone itching to try something new will rejoice in Beer Freak Fridays where visitors get the chance to taste a number of unusual brews such as sours and firkins.

- Bar Games

Guests are encouraged to sit back and relax or get up and party any day of the week with a variety of bar games designed to fit everyone's mood. Classic board games such as Connect Four and bar hall staples including foosball, shuffle board, ping pong and corn hole will keep the good times rolling.
