RECO Be Home Smart Tour Events

To help consumers overcome the challenges of a hot real estate market, RECO's Be Home Smart community outreach campaign is travelling to 13 locations across Ontario this fall and into 2017. The campaign includes an interactive display booth where consumers can take a fun quiz to test their Real Estate IQ and have their photo taken with an image of their 'dream home.' They'll receive the photo printed on the cover of RECO's Reconnect magazine and electronically for sharing on social media. More dates and locations will be added so be sure to visit www.reco.on.ca for updates.
