

Carl and Jeannie Bio

To be shared with media, on an as requested basis, following the distribution of the Medikidz LGS Book launch press release

Residing in Leesburg, Virginia, Carl and Jeannie are the protagonists in the latest book of the “Medikidz Explain Epilepsy” comic book series. The new book “Medikidz Explain Lennox-Gastaut Syndrome (LGS),” also features their children Jackson (7), Tenley (5) and Bennett (18 mos.). The book is told through the eyes of sister Tenley, designed to educate readers about the experience of living with a family member who has LGS.

In addition to starring in the comic book, Carl works as a computer engineer and Jeannie is a full-time mom.
