

Sustainability at Maple Leaf Foods

A far-reaching commitment that's deeply entrenched in our business. For complete details, visit mapleleafsustainability.ca

Advancing Nutrition and Health

Removing artificial flavours, colours and trans fats in retail branded products by the end of 2017

Among the largest producers of RWA pork and RWA poultry in North America

Treating Animals Well

Open housing

Transitioning approximately 33,000 sows to open housing by the end of 2017, and all our remaining sows by 2021

Valuing Our People and Communities

0.78

Total Recordable Injury Rate in 2016, with an 87.5% improvement since 2012

50%

gender diversity at the Manager level and up by 2022

feed opportunity

50%

The amount the Maple Leaf Centre for Action on Food Security aims to reduce food insecurity by 2030

Eliminating Waste

Bold goal, bold reductions

50% environmental footprint reduction by 2025. Reductions achieved since the beginning of 2015 (per 1,000 kg of production) include:

27.6%
in energy use

20.9%
in water use

33.2%
in greenhouse gas emissions

8.4%
less waste - for a landfill diversion rate of 91.5%.

1.3 million
truck kilometres eliminated in our prepared meats
network