Master of Science

International Hospitality and Tourism Management

The Luxury Hotelschool is an international school offering training in luxury hospitality management established over 30 years ago.

The school has teamed up with two major English institutions to offer students the opportunity to follow a prestigious double training course in Paris, entirely in English, leading to a Master of Science. The entire course includes 6 months of classroom lessons, 6 months' professional experience in the form of a work placement in a luxury hotel, 2 months' e-learning and writing a professional dissertation. The Confederation of Tourism and Hospitality (CTH) is the leading specialist professional body in the United Kingdom for qualifications in the hospitality and tourism sector.

Coventry University is ranked second in the UK for hospitality, event management and tourism by the Guardian University Guide 2022.
